SUBJECT: Poland-U.S.S.R. Boundary Adjustment

A translation is attached of a Polish newspaper article reporting the signing of a protocol in Warsaw on September 10, 1958, on the delimitation of the Soviet-Polish boundary. No additional information is so far available to the Embassy on this subject. It is usual, however, for international agreements on these matters to be made public after they have been ratified by the Polish Sejm. The latter is not now in session.

Signing of Delimitation Documents Between Poland and the U.S.S.R.
Trybuna Ludu No. 254, Sept. 11, 1958      Verbatim

In accordance with the Agreement of March 5, 1957 and with the protocol of March 18, 1958 the Polish-Soviet Mixed Commission, from May 11, 1957, to September 1958 conducted delimitation work on the State frontier between the Polish People's Republic and the Union of Socialist Soviet Republics in its part adjoining the Baltic Sea, and divided the territorial waters of the PPR and the USSR in the Bay of Gdansk, on the Baltic Sea.

The work of the Mixed Commission was accomplished in an atmosphere full of understanding, friendship and cooperation.

The documents of delimitation of the frontier and division of territorial waters were signed in Warsaw on September 10.

The documents were signed on the Polish side by Ambassador J. Zambrowicz, Chairman of the Polish delegation; K. Korlarczyk, Counsellor of Embassy; by Colonel L. Winiewicz, Lieutenant Colonel M. Tempel and Professor J. Wasowicz.

On the Soviet side the documents were signed by D. I. Zaikin, Chairman of the Soviet delegation and U.S.S.R. Deputy; Colonel D. I. Nikitin and Colonel F. W. Radiewicz, members of the delegation; and by M. K. Martshenko, II rank Captain.

On the Polish side there attended: Vice Minister M. Naszkowski, Director of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; General of Brigade J. Hibner, Vice Minister for Foreign Affairs and Division General M. Graniewski, Deputy Chief of the General Staff.

On the Soviet side were: P. A. Abrasimov, U.S.S.R. Ambassador to Poland; J. W. Biernov, Counsellor of the U.S.S.R. Embassy and I. C. Borisov, First Secretary of the U.S.S.R. Embassy.
